NEW! ACC-Warren ProcNet Website Redesign Launch... On Monday, 13 Jun 11, ACC-Warren launched the redesigned ProcNet website. Improved menubars and standard page formatting make it easier for Contractors to find buying opportunities and related support information on the site. The website is now fully operational and we encourage you to contact us with your comments.

Army Contracting Command - Warren Events... To find information on upcoming ACC-Warren events please visit our Events page.

ProcNet Vendor Notification System (VNS) interim solution implemented... An interim solution has been implemented to provide Vendors with a daily report of the new solicitations and amendments that were issued by the Army Contracting Command - Warren. To receive the report, please send an email to the DAMI\_AcquisitionCenterWebPage@conus.army.mil mailbox requesting to be added to the distribution list. For additional information please refer to the Vendor Registration page.

Customer Survey... Thank you for providing feedback on the ACC-Warren ProcNet website. We are in the process on analyzing the survey responses and will post the results in the near future. This information is critical to the ACC-Warren ProcNet website redesign effort. Our goal is to make it easier for Contractors to find buying opportunities and related support information on the site.

Army Single Face to Industry (ASFI) Bid Response System (BRS)

● What is the ASFI?

- The Army's Web site for conducting electronic commerce on the Internet
- Allows vendors to search for contracting opportunities, Combined Synopsis/Solicitations, and procurement Notifications – Army wide

● What is the BRS?

- A Web-based system for submitting responses to Army solicitations
- Vendors upload files to provide a complete proposal, meeting the requirements of the solicitation
- Linked to the Central Contractor Registration (CCR) and Online Representations and Certifications Application (ORCA)
- Authentication by ASFI using CAGE and MPIN

Requirements for On Line Proposal Submission

- Must be registered in the Central Contractor Registry (CCR) and have a CCR Marketing Partner Identification Number (MPIN) and CAGE Code
- Read/Download the entire solicitation
- Follow the proposal preparation instructions as given in the solicitation and prepare response and supporting documentation
- Create the documents, including required attachments and exhibits, using acceptable electronic file formats
- Access the ASFI BRS to upload offer and any associated attachments
- Upload applicable Representation and Certification file from the On-line Representations and Certifications Application (ORCA) Web site
- Record the ASFI-generated Price Quote Number as evidence of their bid submission - Save copy of PDF
