

Mine Resistant Ambush Protected (MRAP)
Joint Logistics Integrator (JLI)

Amendment 4

The United States Army Contracting Command – Warren has been delayed in releasing the Request for Proposal W56HZV-12-R-0034, as originally anticipated for early October 2012, to procure the Joint Logistics Integrator (JLI) services in support of the JLI mission in Afghanistan, Kuwait, and the Joint Program Office (JPO) in Warren, Michigan and Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command operations (SPAWAR) in Charleston, South Carolina.

The Formal Solicitation is expected to be released and available on the PROCNET JLI webpage at the link below by mid to late October 2012.

Please continue to check the JLI contracting webpage at the link below for additional information and updates.
